

SOMERSET ARCHAEOLOGICAL & NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY

You are cordially invited to

NEW APPROACHES TO ROMAN ARCHAEOLOGY

10am – 4.45pm Saturday 19 October 2013

At the Museum of Bath at Work,
Camden Works, Julian Road, Bath BA1 2RH

See <http://www.bath-at-work.org.uk/how-to-find-the-museum-of-bath-at-work/>

A day workshop examining the renaissance in Roman archaeological studies and its impact on our understanding on the Roman landscape with particular attention to Somerset.

10am (coffee) for 10.30am

Speakers in the morning session:

Zena Kamash (The English Landscape and Identities Project)

Steve Rippon & Chris Smart (The Fields of Britannia Project)

Richard Young (Cotswold Archaeology): Hinkley Point: a Roman landscape

Lunch: fend for yourselves

Speakers in the afternoon session:

Jo Valender (Environmental Dimension Partnership) Keynsham: Roman Traiectus?

Alex Smith (The Roman Rural Settlement Project) Preliminary results from the East of England.

Neil Holbrook (Cotswold Archaeology) Developer Archaeology and Roman Somerset: fresh perspectives since 1990)

Discussion and refreshments

Close about 4.45pm

Admission for the day: £15.00 payable on the door or booked in advance through the Society's website www.sanhs.org

The detailed programme will also be published on the Society's website
<http://www.sanhs.org>