

SOMERSET ARCHAEOLOGICAL & NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY

ARCHAEOLOGY COMMITTEE

You are cordially invited to

THE LARGEST HILLFORT IN BRITAIN: UNDERSTANDING HAM HILL?

A lecture by Niall Sharples, Reader in Archaeology, Cardiff University

and to

The 2013 ANNUAL ARCHAEOLOGICAL SYMPOSIUM

at the David Hall, Roundwell Street, South Petherton
TA13 5AA

10am (coffee) for 10.30am on Saturday 9th March 2013

10.30am Recent Archaeological Work in the County

Doug Gurzynski - Romano British and Medieval activity in and around Stapleton

Richard Brunning - Recent fieldwork at Aller

Bob Croft - The Fairfield Archaeological Study Team

David Dawson - Recent analysis of medieval and post-medieval earthenwares from Taunton Castle

Lunch: fend for ourselves

2.15pm Niall Sharples: The Largest Hillfort in Britain: understanding Ham Hill.

Tea

Admission for the day: £10.00 payable on the door.

The detailed programme will be published on the website
<http://www.sanhs.org/>