Somersetshire
Archaeological and Natural History Society.
TAUNTON CASTLE.

ESTABLISHED 1849.

Rules.

I.—This Society shall be called "THE SOMERSETSHIRE ARCHÆOLOGICAL AND NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY"; and its objects shall be (a) the collection and publication of information on Archæology and Natural History, particularly in connection with the County of Somerset; and (b) the maintenance of the Museum and Library at Taunton Castle.

II.—The affairs of the Society shall be controlled by a Council which shall meet monthly, and at such other times as may be deemed necessary. The Council shall consist of the Officers of the Society, the Local Secretaries, one representative from each of the Branch Societies and Natural History Sections, and twelve Members elected at the Annual Meeting. Five shall form a quorum. One-third of the elected Members of the Council shall retire annually by rotation, but shall be eligible for re-election.

III.—The Officers of the Society shall consist of: (a) A Patron and Trustees, who shall be elected for life by the Council; (b) a President, Vice-Presidents, one or more Honorary Secretaries, and Honorary Treasurers, who shall be elected at each Annual General Meeting.

IV.—The Council may appoint an Assistant-Secretary on such terms and at such salary as they shall from time to time think fit. The Assistant-Secretary shall, if so required, be the Librarian and the Curator of the Museum.

V.—The Assistant-Secretary shall summon and make all necessary preparation for and attend all meetings of the Council and Committees, keep the minutes, conduct correspondence, receive and acknowledge subscriptions and donations, and pay the same to the Treasurers.

VI.—The accounts of the Society shall be made up to December 31st in every year, and shall be kept in proper books of account, and audited annually by the Auditors of the Society who shall be appointed at an Annual General Meeting.

VII.—The Council may elect for such period as they shall think fit Members of the Society as Local Secretaries, who shall be the recognised correspondents with the Society for the districts assigned to them.

VIII.—When any office shall become vacant, the Council shall have power to fill the same, but such appointment shall remain in force only until the next Annual General Meeting.

IX.—The Annual General Meeting of the Society shall be held at such time and place as the Council shall decide. At least three weeks' notice thereof and of the business to be transacted shall be given to all members. A preliminary notice, stating date and place of meeting, shall be issued to Members at least three months previously.

X.—The Assistant-Secretary shall, upon receiving a requisition signed by ten Members, forthwith call a Special Meeting of the Society. Three weeks' notice of such Special Meeting and particulars of its object shall be given to each Member.

XI.—The real property of the Society shall be held in Trust for the purposes of the Society by the Trustees, the number of whom shall not exceed twelve, nor be less than four. The contents of the Museum and Library shall be under the control of the Council.

XII.—The Council shall have power to accept or reject any books or specimens offered to the Society or to purchase the same, and to dispose of any duplicates as they shall think fit. They shall also have power to accept books or specimens on loan.

XIII.—In the event of the dissolution of the Society all its property, both real and personal, shall be held by the Trustees or the Council, as the case may be, for the advancement of literature, science and art, in the Town of Taunton and the County of Somerset.

XIV.—Candidates for membership shall be nominated by two Members and the election determined by open voting at a Council Meeting, unless a ballot is demanded by three Members then present. Such ballot shall be taken at the next meeting, and one black ball in six shall exclude.

XV.—Members elected after the 20th July, 1920, shall pay an entrance fee of 10/6 and an annual subscription of not less than 21/-, and members of their families resident in the same house shall pay not less than 10/6 annually, but such resident members shall not receive a free copy of the Society's Proceedings. The fee for Life Membership shall not be less than Fifteen Guineas.

XVI.—At any General Meeting of the Society the Council may recommend for election as Honorary Members persons eminent for their literary or scientific attainments or benefactors of the Society. Such persons may be forthwith elected by a majority of Members then present and voting.

XVII.—On election every new Member shall be notified thereof by the Assistant-Secretary, who shall at the same time send a copy of the Rules and Bye-laws of the Society. No Member shall participate in any of the benefits of the Society until the entrance fee and appropriate annual subscription or the fee for life membership have been paid. Every Life Member, every Member elected before the 20th July, 1920, and paying a subscription of not less than 10/6, every Member elected after that date and paying a subscription of not less than 21/-, and every Honorary Member, shall be entitled to receive a free copy of the Proceedings relative to each year of membership. All subscriptions subsequent to those paid on admission shall be payable on the 1st January in each year. Any Member intending to withdraw from the Society shall give notice to that effect to the Assistant-Secretary on or before December 31st, failing which such Member shall pay the subscription for the ensuing year.

XVIII.—The Council may, as they think fit, publish any papers read at meetings, or other communications to the Society.

XIX.—No religious or political discussions shall be permitted at Meetings of the Society.

XX.—The Council shall have power from time to time to frame and enforce Bye-laws consistent with the Rules of the Society, but no change shall be made in such Rules except at an Annual or Special General Meeting, at which not less than twenty-five Members shall be present. One month's notice of any proposal to change a Rule shall be given to the Assistant-Secretary, who shall communicate the same to each member at least three weeks before the meeting.

Bye-laws.

1.—The Museum shall be open daily (with the exception of Sunday, Good Friday and Christmas Day, and such other days as the Council may direct), from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. (and at dusk in winter) from October 1st to April 30th, and from 10 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. from May 1st to September 30th. Admission: (a) Members, free; (b) Non-Members, Sixpence each (children Threepence), except on Saturdays when the admission will be Threepence each (children Twopence). Special terms for schools (accompanied by one or more teachers) can be obtained on application to the Curator.

2.—The Library shall be open for the use of Members of the Society at such hours as the Museum is open.

3.—No Member whose annual subscription is unpaid on the 1st April in each year shall participate in any of the benefits of the Society (including the use of the Museum and Library) until payment has been made. If such Member be still in arrear at the end of the year following that for which the subscription is due, he shall without further notice cease to be a Member of the Society. Nevertheless the Council may, if it thinks fit and on good cause being shown, reinstate such former Member after payment of all arrears.

4.—Any Member whose annual subscription has been paid in accordance with bye-law 3, may borrow two books at one time, excepting such works as may not be removed from the Library.

5.—Every application made by a Member who does not apply in person for the loan of any book shall be in writing.

6.—A Register shall be kept by the Librarian, in which shall be entered the titles of the books borrowed, the names of the borrowers, and the dates of delivery and return.

7.—The cost of packing, transmission, and return of books borrowed, shall be defrayed by the borrower.

8.—No book shall be kept longer than fourteen days, if the same be applied for in the meantime by any other Member; nor in any case shall a book be kept longer than one month.

9.—Every Member who borrows a book shall be responsible for its safe return in good condition, and in case of loss or damage shall replace or repair the same ; or, if required by the Council, shall furnish another copy of the entire work of which it forms part.

10.—Catalogues shall be kept (a) by the Librarian of all books and manuscripts in the Library, and (b) by the Curator of all objects in the Museum, distinguishing in each case between those presented to, purchased by, or deposited with the Society.

11.—Persons who are not members of the Society may, upon application to the Librarian, and having been introduced by a Member either personally or by letter, consult and make extracts from manuscripts and printed books upon the following terms : For the first hour or part of an hour, 2/- ; for each succeeding hour or part of an hour, 1/- ; for one day, 5/- ; for a period not exceeding seven consecutive days on which the Library is open, £1.

12.—No complete copy of any manuscript or printed matter shall be made without the consent of the Council. The charges mentioned in Bye-law 11 may be waived if the application is made officially on behalf of a kindred society or a public institution.

Bye-laws relating to the Formation and Affiliation of Branch and District Societies

1.—On the application of not less than five Members of the Society, and on payment of a fee of not less than 10/6, the Council may authorise the formation of a Local Branch in any District, and may, if they think fit, define a portion of the County as the District for such Branch.

2.—Societies already in existence may be affiliated on payment of a fee of not less than 10/6.

3.—Every Branch Society and every Affiliated Society shall pay to the Parent Society an Annual Subscription of not less than 21/-. A Branch Society may elect a representative to serve on the Council of the Parent Society, and Branch and Affiliated Societies shall receive a copy of the Society's Proceedings relative to each year of affiliation.

4.—Every Branch Society may fix the rates of subscription for its Members, and make Rules and Bye-laws for the government of such Branch.

5.—Every Branch Society shall give a copy of each of its publications to the Parent Society.

6.—The President, Secretary and Treasurer of a Branch Society shall be allowed to use the Museum and Library of the Parent Society free of charge, but without the right of borrowing books.
