PREFACE

It has been found possible to publish a volume of approximately the same size as that for the year 1940, in spite of the inevitable difficulties resulting from the present conditions.

The number of plates is above the average. This is due to the necessity of figuring a large number of the tiles from Cleeve Abbey and elsewhere to illustrate adequately Major J. B. Ward Perkins's paper.

The thanks of the Society are due to Dr. A. Bulleid for defraying the cost of the blocks illustrating his paper on Chambered Long-Barrows; to the Rev. H. E. Field for his contribution towards the cost of the blocks for Mr. A. B. Connor's further paper on Monumental Brasses; to the editor of Country Life for the loan of blocks for the paper on Nathaniel Ireson; to the Rt. Rev. Abbot E. Horne for providing the blocks of the Falconry, Farleigh Hungerford; and to Mr. H. St. George Gray for compiling the Index to the volume.

THE EDITORIAL COMMITTEE.
