

Natural History Winter Programme: Oct 2021 – April 2022

Oct 2 FM Triscombe Stone 11 – 3.30 Steve Parker Meet TS car park ST1638 3595 Packed lunch, stout boots/shoes/flat ground, can leave early, Booking through naturalhistory@sanhs.org. Donation of £4.00 would be appreciated
MEETING CANCELLED DUE TO POOR WEATHER.

Nov 7 Fungi Foray in Loxley Wood. Mixed deciduous and coniferous woodland 11am – 3.30pm. Leader Steve Parker, Meet ST4060 3765 Parking either in Wood
Lane or layby on A38. Bring a packed lunch, stout boots or shoes, flat ground.
Attendees can leave early, Booking naturalhistory@sanhs.org Donation of £4.00 would be appreciated.

Dec 9 St. Kilda All about this island by Sara Frost Nature Trek Leader on these trips. The presentation commences at 7.30pm describing the wildlife and islands to be seen during the boat trip, a short break and then the island itself.
Although this can be free event, a donation would be appreciated. Please click on the button of your choice. Register HERE for the Webinar

Jan. 1 -----

Feb 5 Members meeting, Friends Meeting House, Bath Place, Taunton. 2pm for 2.30pm start.
Programme to be arranged. Refreshments provided. Booking at naturalhistory@sanhs.org

Mar. 5 Bats in Somerset. Ed and Helen Wells, vice chair and Bat Recorders for Somerset. Friends Meeting House, Bath Place, Taunton. An illustrated talk on these little known, but so interesting, animals. Doors open at 2.00pm for a 2.30pm start.
Book at naturalhistory@sanhs.org . Cost £4.00, Refreshments included

Apr. 23 FM Thurlbear Wood. Leader Simon Leach. Spring flowers in this interesting wood and early butterflies on the adjacent Quarrylands limestone grassland with spring migrant birds in full song.
Meet ST 274 212, 11am-3pm, bring a packed lunch. May be muddy so stout shoes or boots, some slopes, attendees can leave early. Booking naturalhistory@sanhs.org Donation of £4.00 would be appreciated.